About

Timothy James Reed is a Multimedia Designer located in West Michigan. Tim has helped companies launch their web departments from a fledgling concept to a rock sold development firm. Tim has extensive knowledge in Web Development and Design with a solid understanding of traditional Graphic Design processes.

Education

Born and raised in northern California I graduated in the top of my class at Tulare Union High in 2001. " after graduation I decided to take a year off from school to travel and see what was out there. I ended up in "Big Sky Country" Montana where I met my wife Debra."

In 2006 I was accepted to Kendall College of Art and Design of Ferris State where I am obtaining my BA in Digital Media Design.
